

Written on 30 May 2022 2 minutes of reading
News

- Training and Careers

On May 23rd, the Class of 2022 was officially sponsored by Linda Jackson, CEO of Peugeot, during a ceremony in the Dahlias amphitheater.

Linda Jackson was greeted by Pierre-Franck Chevet, President of IFP Energies nouvelles, and Christine Travers, Dean of IFP School.

Ms. Jackson shared her career path, which she built entirely in the automotive industry. She then presented Peugeot's electrification strategy and highlighted the challenges to be met in the context of the ecological transition. Finally, she praised the historic partnership between Peugeot (one of the 15 brands of the Stellantis group) and the School.

After her speech, two students spokespersons for the Class of 2022 took the microphone to lead a question-and-answer session. The patronage ceremony ended with the presentation of the medal and the traditional souvenir photo.

You may also be interested in

IFP School in the top 10 of the best engineering schools in France according to the HappyIndex®AtSchool ranking

Video clips on the energy transition: a successful outcome!

Hydrogen mobility: discover the IFP School's new online training module!

Linda Jackson, CEO of Peugeot, honorary patron of the Class of 2022 (IFP School)

30 May 2022

Link to the web page :